ATTENTION RAHWAY SENIORS:

Please be advised of the following mandates from the State of New Jersey and the City of Rahway amid the Coronavirus COVID-19. We urge you all to remain indoors when possible and practice precautionary measures. The Rahway Seniors are a vital part of our community and we want you all to remain safe in these uncertain times.

- The Rahway Senior Center will be closed until further notice. This includes all senior events including AARP tax preparation services and the Senior Citizen Prom.
- The Rahway Public Library is closed until further notice.
- The Senior Transportation Service will continue to transport seniors to:
 - Grocery Store (Wegmans, Shop Rite, Walmart, Stop and Shop, BJ's, Costco, etc.)
 - Obtaining Medication
 - Medical Visits
- All remaining Meals on Wheels congregates will be closed until further notice. Home delivered meals for persons with disabilities and seniors over 60 will continue and be expanded for persons in need of food delivery in their homes. For more information, please call Union County Meals on Wheels at 908-527-4870.
- ALL casinos, theaters, gyms and recreational businesses are closed
- Prohibition of meetings of more than 50 people
- All bars and restaurants will be closed. These establishments can open for takeout or delivery services only. These restrictions also exist during the day. In other words – bars and restaurants except for take-out or delivery services, until further notice.
- Rahway City Hall will be closed to the public effective Tuesday, March 17th. Rahway City Hall will remain operational. Reopening to the public is anticipated on March 23rd with shortened hours and limited in-person services. We will continue to encourage residents to conduct their business via phone and email.
 - Any tax payments can be made electronically, by mail-in check or dropped in the drop box located outside of the Rahway City Hall parking lot entrance.
 - Any permit applications can be dropped off in the drop box located outside of the Rahway City Hall parking lot entrance.
 - The Rahway Municipal Courts have suspended in-person court sessions until further notice. The Violations Bureau will also be closed. Payments can be made electronically, mail-in check or placed in the drop-box outside Rahway Police Department.
 - Garbage and recycling collection will continue.
 - The City of Rahway will be suspending parking meters effective Tuesday, March 17, 2020.
 - All parking permit payments must be made electronically
